

The Corporate
Finance Community

What happens when your client needs finance, valuations or exit planning?

Stuck for what to do next?

Are you 'dabbling' in corporate finance work and need some technical support?

Well, here's a refreshing change... Welcome to The Corporate Finance Community

Devised by The Corporate Finance Network, The Corporate Finance Community supports the smallest firms in this specialised area.

How does it work?

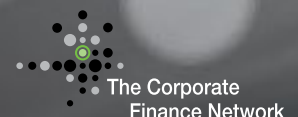

Membership of The Corporate Finance Community entitles you to:

- 1 free conference per year (held regionally) covering the latest technical issues around corporate finance services and the market;
- 2 further technical updates per year (via email);
- 3 valuable business development resources to assist you when working with your clients;
- Access to a specialist researcher and databases, plus ideas for how to use;
- Introductions to specialist contacts who can assist you with the work;
- Use of the logo of The Corporate Finance Community on your website, brochure & literature;

The cost is £500 + VAT per year.
